

Headteacher's Blog: 21st September 2026

Welcome to this week's blog!

I honestly cannot believe we are already the beginning of week 4! The term is flying by, and the corridors and classrooms are filled with energy, purposeful learning, and wonderful smiles every day.

Assembly Focus: What Does it Mean to "Be Safe"?

In Monday's assembly, we gathered to reflect on our school motto: Be Safe, Be Smart, Be Kind. This week, we turned our focus specifically to what it means to "Be Safe."

We talked about who is responsible for keeping us safe during our time at school, agreeing that while the adults work hard to protect everyone, every child also has a personal responsibility to keep themselves and their friends safe. The responses from the children were absolute quality! They showed a mature understanding that school rules and staff instructions aren't there to stop fun, but are put in place to look after everyone and keep our school a happy, secure place to learn.

5 Stars for Our Fantastic Kitchen Team! ★★★★★

We have some very exciting news from our school kitchen! Following an unannounced inspection last week by Environmental Health, our kitchen was awarded the maximum 5-Star Food Hygiene Rating! I am sure you will join me in passing on a huge thank you to our incredible kitchen staff and our partners at the Northumberland County Council School Meals Service. They work tirelessly behind the scenes to prepare safe, nutritious, and delicious hot meals for our children every single day. Congratulations on a well-deserved achievement!

Looking Ahead & Quick Reminders

- Morning Routines: Thank you for your support with our morning drop-offs. Arriving on time gives the children a calm, settled start to their day.

- Labelling Uniform: As the weather starts to turn a little cooler, please double-check that all red jumpers, cardigans, and coats are clearly named so we can return any misplaced items swiftly.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support and partnership. Have a wonderful weekend!

Warm regards,

Ms. Jane Ramsay
